Property news Buying

Perivale perfection: two-bedroom flat with Poirot-worthy Art Deco detailing for sale in the restored Hoover Building

This two-bedroom flat is part of the painstakingly restored former factory building.

FAYE GREENSLADE | Wednesday 1 November 2017 11:20 GMT | 0 comments

4 shares

Like Click to follow H&P

The gorgeous Hoover Building in Perivale has opened its striking Art Deco doors to reveal a collection of fabulous new flats.

This one, on the first floor, is generous in space and in light, filtered through original factory windows.

As you would expect, the interiors are all very Poirot-esque with Deco detailing in the kitchen's stone worktops, sleek handleless cabinetry and hardwood oak floors.

There's an en-suite bathroom to the master bedroom, while the second bedroom has use of a spa-style main bathroom.

There's a video entry system, and sound-proofing and air management ensure noise from the A40 Western Avenue is kept to a minimum.

For sale for £569,995 through Hamptons (020 3451 1544).

£569,995: flats in an Art Deco icon