News in brief from the new homes scene, Week 40 2017

Posted 5 October 2017 by Keith Osborne

This is a very busy time of year for new homes buyers, with a host of launches, offers and events to consider across the UK right now...

New apartments come to Sunbury-on-Thames

IDM Properties has launched a brand new development in Sunbury-on-Thames, Surrey, with a range of apartments that the company sees appealing strongly to young professionals.

Dolphin House has 112 new homes, a mix of studio and one-bedroom apartments, converting a building previously used in the commercial world into a modern residential unit that offers those living there excellent access to town amenities, the River Thames and rail links to central London, with Waterloo station just 50 minutes away.

Jonathan Curtis, sales and marketing director for IDM Properties, says: "Dolphin House is testament to our belief that there is a genuine need for superior quality and spacious apartments in Surrey. With homes in inner London moving further and further out of reach of many trying to get onto the property ladder, there is a real demand for homes with first time buyers in mind."

Studio apartments start at £195,000, one-bedroom apartments at £215,000.
